

Which are the ways to promote the European values?

- To educate people on differences
- To open a dialogue to discuss differences
- To educate, inside the own family and in the schools, about rights and responsibility
- To use social media and spread, through them, positive messages with film, videos and spots
- To create opportunities for youth to come together and share their culture with people from around the world
- To raise awareness of the importance of taking part in democratic system
- To talk with people in the real life and not just using the socials
- To appreciate what we have and share it with the others
- To help disadvantaged people with volunteers project
- Don't discriminate people basing on their race, nationality, gender, age, religion and sexuality
- To realize a social campaign about human rights and their violation, including a flash mob, seminars, conferences, museums and theatres tours and social group games with children and adults
- To take interests in issues which don't directly interest you with the purpose to be more active
- To lobby government to get them to change laws to make life better
